Organ donation. What you need to know.

One donor can help up to seven different people.

Over 500 people in Scotland are waiting for an organ.

Even if you already carry a donor
card you may not be on the NHS Organ Donor Register.

Only 4 in 10 people in Scotland are on the Register.

It only takes two minutes to sign up.

If you would like more information on organ donation please visit weneedeverybody.org or call 0300 123 23 23.

“An organ donor saved my life.”

If you believe in organ donation,
join the Register today.

Save a life,
be an organ donor.

“An organ donor saved my life.
That’s why I’m backing the call to get everybody in Scotland on the NHS Organ Donor Register.”

Gordon Hutchison knows that without the generosity of his donor, he wouldn't be here. He underwent a heart transplant aged just 13 and knows what it feels like to be on the waiting list.

Next time you're with a relative or a loved one, let them know that you're willing to be an organ donor. Tell them that, should anything happen to you, you're happy to donate your organs so that others can live.

Only 4 in 10 people in Scotland are on the NHS Organ Donor Register.

9 out of 10 people agree that being an organ donor is a good thing. Yet most people aren't on the NHS Organ Donor Register. This means one person dies every day because we don't have enough organs for transplant. We urgently need more donors. Even if you already carry a donor card, you may not be registered. If you're not sure, it's better to add your name to the Register.

Please do it now.

It only takes two minutes to register, so please do it right now. Just complete the freepost form opposite, seal and post it back to us. Or you can register by telephone or online.

Thank you.

Thank you for making the decision to become an organ donor. When we receive your form, you will be added to the NHS Organ Donor Register and your details will be matched with your NHS number. If we already have your details, we will update your current entry, if necessary. If not, we'll add your name to the NHS Organ Donor Register.

Tell everybody.

As well as telling your friends and family that you are willing to be an organ donor, why not save even more lives by encouraging them to join the Register too? Simply ask them to fill in the attached forms and return them to the address overleaf. We need everybody to join the NHS Organ Donor Register now.

Someone dies every day waiting on a transplant.

You're not too old to be a donor –
even if you're in your 70's, 80's or older.

You are never too young to think about signing up.

It doesn't matter what shape or size you are.

Almost everyone is healthy enough to be a donor.

We always need more people
on the Register.

Everybody can save a life.
